

Hi, I'm Karina.
I'm a Full Stack Developer in training. And if you're hiring,
you should nab
me while I'm still (relatively) cheap.

I am currently undertaking a Diploma in Full Stack Software Development with Code Institute, Europe's only university credit-rated coding bootcamp. The stack I will be proficient in upon completion is the following: HTML, CSS, Sass, Bootstrap, jQuery, JavaScript, d3.js, DC.js, Vue.js, Crossfilter.js, SQL/NoSQL, Python, Mongo DB, Flask & Django. Additionally I am using git for version control and Figma for UXD and wireframing.

Selected Projects.

I'm approaching software and web development from a strong background working in various creative industries. In many ways programming feels like a natural corollary of my education which was heavily data oriented and my work experience to date, which was creative. Broad skills that I have, maybe I
